Principal's Message

We have had a busy week here at Chandler, where everyone has been working hard and playing nicely.

Later in the term we will be holding an active after school communities training day for coaches. While the date is still to be confirmed, the venue will be here at Chandler. The training will be free, an open to anyone who is interested.

Next week will be bigger again, with our year 3 students undertaking their NAPLAN assessments on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

On Friday, we will all travel to Ben Lomond to compete in the small schools cross country.

Earn and Learn

Woolworths supermarket is currently running a promotion where customers receive an "earn and learn" sticker for every $10 spent in store. These stickers can be collected and brought into the school, where we can trade the stickers in for school supplies. If you are a customer of woolworths and would like to collect stickers for Chandler, we would love to have them!

Small School Cross Country

The annual Small Schools Cross Country will be held at Ben Lomond Public School on Friday 18 May. We anticipate the day will commence with children walking the course at 10am and conclude at approximately 2pm.

Please find attached a program for the this event and sign the permission note below, return to school by Monday 14 May.

Students will need to be in their full sports uniform, including hat and jacket.

Ben Lomond P&C will be providing lunch for staff, students and parents to purchase. Available to purchase will be a roast meat & gravy roll & popper OR a hot dog & popper, cost will be $5.00 each. Our P&C will also host a morning tea for staff and parents. If we could have rough lunch order numbers by next Tuesday that would be fantastic.

Soccer

"On Saturday Louis, Isabel and I played Soccer in Guyra. I kicked the ball and it went all the way across.

Our team got a goal.

It was fun.

Next week we are playing in Uralla."
