Principal's Message

Welcome to Arlie, who joined our class this week! Arlie is in year 2, and has slotted right in with her new classmates here at Chandler.

We all had a wonderful time at Thalgarrah Environmental Education Centre yesterday. Matt had a wonderful program for us, and everyone had lots of fun. Yamba the carpet python was a hit with almost everyone. He confused Louis' leg with a tree at one stage, and wrapped himself around Louis knee! Everyone learnt lots and had a wonderful day.

Student Report

Each week we will have a report on what has happened during the week from the point of view of the students. This week,

We went to Thalgarrah. We saw a snake. I held it. The snake was a carpet python, it was very fun.

We also painted a frog. There were poisonous frog and not poisonous frogs. All different kinds of frogs. I like frogs.

And we walked in the bush. I had lots of fun. We played games.

We also got to see a frog. I got to pat it.

Wollomombi Local Area Committee- AGM and the Sauer Memorial Hall Committee meeting AGM

Annual General Meeting of the Wollomombi Local Area Committee and the Sauer Memorial Hall Committee to be held in the Sauer Memorial Hall on 25th June, 2013 at 7.30pm.

Jokes of the week

"Why do giants have big noses?
Because they have big fingers."

"Why did the lollypop cross the road?
Because he was stuck to the chickens leg!"

Youth Online

The next instalment in our youth online series will see celebrated author Sophie Masson visit Chandler to conduct an exciting writing workshop with us. Once again, a large number of other schools will join in via video conference. More information about Sophie and her wonderful books can be found here: <http://www.sophiemasson.org/>

Figures of speech

How do you explain the difference between metaphors, similes and other literary devices? Is "pigs might fly" an example of an oxymoron, sarcasm, hyperbole....or something else? Here's a cheat sheet for when your kids need help with English homework.

What makes a good book?

Books with vivid imagery, exciting stories and strong characters will not only entertain your child but set them up to enjoy reading for the rest of their life.
