Principal's Message

Welcome to week 7!

Swimming lessons began today, and all of our students joined in enthusiastically. It was a lovely day to be in the pool!

We have been joined at Chandler by Miss Lucy Partridge, a University of Newcastle teaching student who is doing her prac with us. She is very popular with all of our students, and is a great help at this busy time of year!

As we are doing assessments over the next two weeks, there are no specific spelling words. Homework lists will be from across the year.

Principal

School hats

A number of families have indicated that they would like their child's surname embroidered on to their child's school hat for ease of identification. Both Ace Embroidery and Armidale Dry Cleaners will embroider the name for less than $10. You can take your hat to either store for embroidery if you wish, or I can take in a group bundle at the end of term. This is not compulsory, but does make it easy to identify accidentally mixed up hats!
