Principal's Message

Welcome to week 3!

Once again, our term is going quickly, with lots of learning and fun for everyone. This week is Education Week, where we have an opportunity to recognise some of the wonderful achievement of our students, as well as recognising some of the outstanding support the local community give our school.

Mel Wood

Principal

P&C Meeting

A P&C meeting will be held tomorrow, Tuesday, 29 July at 6pm in the Chandler library.

Everyone is welcome to come along.

Leaders lunch

Tomorrow, Tuesday, 29 July, our school leaders will travel to Guyra to attend a leaders luncheon at Rafters restaurant. Leaders from Guyra Central, Bald Blair, Black Mountain and Ben Lomond will be in attendance. Special guest speaker will be Adam Marshall, our local member.

Education Week

This week is Education Week. Today, the Highland community of schools will come together for an awards ceremony to recognise some of the achievements of students and community members of our schools. The ceremony will occur at 4pm at the Guyra Anglican Church, on the Ebor Road, Guyra. On Wednesday, everyone is invited to come along to Chandler at 1pm for a BBQ lunch. Our students will conduct a tour of the school, showcasing our wonderful facilities.

Stephanie Alexander

Today we made Vietnamese Rice rolls - which were delicious.

Kendall, Ebony, Alexandra and Hayley get started.
