Principal's Message

Welcome to week 9!

We are rapidly making our way through term 3! Even though we are approaching the end of term, we are not slowing down- we have a busy few weeks ahead of us.

K-2 have been working hard studying Maurice Sendak's "Where the wild things are." There has been lots of fabulous writing coming from our infants students!

Our years 3-6 students have settled back in after their very exciting week at Lake Keepit. Some pictures of their adventures are at the end of the newsletter.

Principal

P&C Meeting

A P&C Meeting will be held tomorrow, Tuesday, 9th September in the Chandler library, commencing at 6pm. Everyone is welcome to attend.

LOST

"Cocoa", a much loved female Jack Russell, has gone missing over the weekend. She is about 6 months old and very friendly. She was not wearing a collar when she went missing, but she is microchipped. If you have seen Cocoa, please call the school on 6778 1335.
