Principals Report

Welcome to week 8.

We have had a chilly week for our first week of winter here at Chandler! Luckily, it is nice and warm in the classrooms, so we are still learning lots of wonderful things.

Well done to Hayden Smith and Alexandra Coventry, who both were awarded with their bronze award this week. Well done to Louis Ross, who obtained his silver award. Congratulations!

We were lucky enough to video conference with the Australian Museum on Friday, where we learnt all about tongs and created a fabulous picture of a lamb. Also on the conference were Wentworth Falls Public School, Peakhurst West Public School and Otford Public School. We will have a repeat of the video conference in a few weeks, as we had lots of people away sick. There are some pictures of the fantastic artworks later in the newsletter.
